

Martha E. Garza, P.C. has an immediate opening for an immigration attorney in Houston, Texas with 1-2 years experience in family immigration and removal proceedings. The ideal candidate must be fluent in Spanish and possess a current law license.

This position will require extensive interaction with our clients and responsibility for all phases of the case, including court representation. All candidates must be comfortable working in a fast-paced, trial-oriented environment where deadlines are critical.

The ability to research and write clear, concise and persuasive legal briefs is essential, and must be able to handle a moderate to high volume of cases.

Candidates must be personable, self-assured and motivated to help needed individuals. Please submit a resume to marthagarzpc@yahoo.com.