2. National Immigration Project Listservs

WHAT: As a member, you are entitled to join the National Immigration Project's immigration-related listservs, which provide a forum for our members to discuss legal questions, receive up-to-date information on legal developments, circulate briefs and advisories, celebrate victories, discuss challenges, exchange support, announce seminars, and more.

HOW: To subscribe, please email Ana Manigat for your listserv subscription.

Due to improved security at yahoogroups, our listserv host, we are no longer able to add members directly. Instead you will receive an invitation link from yahoogroups, to which you MUST respond (from your desired email address), in order to complete your listserv subscription.

LISTSERVS facilitated, moderated, or supported by NIPNLG:

- 1. National Immigration Project Membership Listserv: An interactive discussion space for questions and issues pertaining to all aspects of immigration law casework. This listserv is exclusive to National Immigration Project Members. To post messages to this listserv, use Nationalimmigrationproject@yahoogroups.com.
- 2. Criminal and Immigration Listserv: A vibrant discussion of all issues pertaining to the intersection of immigration and criminal law. This listserv is exclusive to National Immigration Project Members. To post messages to this listserv, use Crimimm@yahoogroups.com.
- 3. Mental Competency in Immigration Proceedings Listserv: Co-administered by NIPNLG members/NIPNLG, this is a collaborative discussion space for issues pertaining to noncitizens with mental competency issues, including litigation, rights protection, emerging legal developments, and country conditions resources. This list is exclusive to those who represent noncitizens including attorneys, accredited representatives, and legal workers. To join this listserv please use this link.

3. Discounts on Publications and Seminars

Members are eligible for discounts on all NIPNLG Continuing Legal Education \(CLE\) seminars offered nationwide, on Kurzban's Immigration Law Sourcebook and on other NIPNLG publications, including Dan Kesselbrenner and Lory Rosenberg's treatise, Immigration Law and Crimes. To request your Kurzban discount, please email Pamela Goldstein with the subject line: "Seeking Kurzban Discount."

4. Complimentary access to the Immigration Advocates Network (IAN).

Immigration Advocates Network/IAN is an online network of resource libraries, podcasts, and webinars that supports advocates working on behalf of immigrant rights. This valuable resource is only available to non-profit attorneys and advocates, and to NIPNLG members. CLICK HERE to register, and indicate that you are a current NIPNLG member by including your member record number in your correspondence.

5. Online Referral/Find Attorney page

For an additional contribution of $120/year, NIPNLG members may publicize their legal practice on the National Immigration Project's Find Attorney webpages, organized by state, and including your areas of legal specialization. This directory has become a very high-traffic area of our public website since the new U.S. administration took office in January, 2017.

6. Accountability Litigation Mentoring Program

The Accountability Litigation Mentoring Program supports members seeking to litigate damages actions to redress immigration-related law enforcement misconduct. Under this program, experienced accountability litigation attorneys from NIPNLG and the National Police Accountability Project of the National Lawyers Guild (NPAP) are matched, based on whether they wish to refer the case entirely, co-counsel the case, or simply have an attorney mentor. To enroll, please contact Dan Kesselbrenner at dan@nipnl.org.

7. Listing in the National Immigration Project's Membership Directory

Available online to members only by logging in to your member account, this compendium of NIPNLG members is a great way to network with other progressive immigration law practitioners in your area, and contact those with special expertise relevant to your practice. Information in the Membership Directory includes contact info for all members, areas of specialization, years in practice, languages spoken, and more.

8. National Lawyers Guild membership

NIPNLG members are eligible to become NEW/first time members of the National Lawyers Guild \(NLG\) at a discounted rate of $50.00, thereafter paying only the NLG sliding scale or local chapter rate. To join NLG, please click here, indicate that you are a current NIPNLG member, and include your member record number in your correspondence.

Membership dues provide essential fuel for NIPNLG's immigrant rights work--for over 45 years.

If we may be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to continuing to work with you to advance immigrants' rights!
