

FLORIDA IMMIGRANT ADVOCACY CENTER

A non-profit organization dedicated to protecting and promoting the basic human rights of immigrants of all nationalities

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT - PLEASE POST
Staff Attorney

Agency Background:

Florida Immigrant Advocacy Center (FIAC), a not-for-profit legal services organization founded in 1996 to protect and promote the basic human rights of immigrants, has a multicultural and a multilingual staff. FIAC has represented clients from around the world and is recognized as a powerful advocate and national leader for immigrants' rights. FIAC works closely with traditional civil rights organizations as well as with grassroots organizations and local, state and national government officials to affect positive change in immigration policies.

Project Background:

FIAC's Lucha: A Women's Legal Project, established in 1998, serves immigrant women who have been victims of domestic violence or trafficking. Lucha attorneys work with grant partners to provide coordinated services in South Florida. Lucha has been at the forefront of service provision, legislative changes, and national advocacy efforts.
