Dear Ms. Zota:

I refer to our letter dated October 9, 2018, regarding the release of certain Department of State records under the Freedom of Information Act (the “FOIA”), 5 U.S.C. § 552. We have processed more than 1500 pages, and have located 10 responsive records. We have determined that 10 may be released in part.

An enclosure explains the FOIA exemptions and other grounds for withholding material. Where we have made excisions, the applicable FOIA exemptions are marked on the document. All non-exempt material that is reasonably segregable from the exempt material has been released. All released material is enclosed.

If you have any questions, you may contact Assistant United States Attorney Jean-David Barnea by email at Jean-David.Barnea@usdoj.gov. Please refer to the associated FOIA request number, F-2017-17275, and the civil action number, 18-cv-00659, in all communications regarding this case.

Sincerely,

Susan C. Weetman
Chief, Programs and Policies Division
Office of Information Programs and Services

TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS (TPS) AND DEFERRED ENFORCED DEPARTURE (DED) DESIGNATIONS

Last Updated on June 5, 2017

Note: Section 244(b)(1) of the INA, 8 U.S.C. 1255a(b)(1), authorizes the Secretary of Homeland Security (DHS), after consultation with appropriate agencies of the U.S. Government, to designate a foreign state (or part thereof) for Temporary Protected Status (TPS) if the Secretary finds that certain country conditions exist. TPS was established by the Immigration Act of 1990, P.L. 101-649, which gave authority to designate, extend, and terminate TPS to the Attorney General. The Act itself included the first TPS designation: it designated El Salvador for TPS for eighteen months effective 11/25/1990. The Homeland Security Act of 2002, P.L. 107-296, subsequently transferred authority for TPS designations from the Attorney General to the DHS Secretary.

ACTION MEMO FOR THE SECRETARY

FROM: PRM – Simon Henshaw, Acting
       S/HSC – Thomas C. Adams

SUBJECT: (SBU) Recommendation for Haiti

Background

(SBU) TPS provides temporary relief from removal to aliens in the United States who are unable to return to their country due to ongoing armed conflict, environmental disaster, or other extraordinary and temporary conditions. TPS beneficiaries may remain in the United States and obtain work authorization, but TPS does not lead to lawful permanent resident status.

(SBU) Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act gives the Secretary of Homeland Security (DHS) the authority to make TPS designations in consultation with the State Department and other government agencies.
